

Date: 2018/11/24

Patient's Name: R.R

Responsible Physician: Dr.Esfandbod

Patient presentation:

73years, Female, Negative family history

Left 4 cm breast mass with bilateral axillary lymphadenopathy.

Tumor core needle biopsy: invasive ductal carcinoma, ER +PR+ HER2-.

Axillary lymph node fine needle aspiration: negative.

She had a 30% ejection fraction.

She was under letrozole for 3 months as a neo-adjuvant therapy

She underwent operation on 8/2018 : Breast conservation therapy and axillary lymph node dissection.

Lymph nodes pathology: chronic lymphocytic leukemia (she has also 33000 lymphocyte dominant white blood cells)

She is receiving letrozole + follow up for chronic lymphocytic leukemia

Question: Plan?

Recommended tests:No further test needed

Recommended plan: continuing letrozole+ follow up for Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia