

Date: 12 Oct 2019. 98/7/20

Patient's Name: A. N.

Responsible Physician: Dr. Alipour

Patient Presentation:

- A 56 year old female known case of inflammatory breast cancer, pathology proved bilateral axillary involved lymphadenopathies and image proved bone metastases
- Immunohistochemistry: ER-, PR-, HER2+, Ki67 20-30%
- Neo-adjuvant treatment: 7 courses chemotherapy, radiation to sternum and spine
- She has not responded to chemotherapy and get worsened, she got Zona in opposite site of chest wall
- Oncologist referred her for surgery

Question: What is the next plan?

Recommended Plan: Changing the line of chemotherapy and re-evaluation

A woman with inflammatory breast cancer who received neo-adjuvant chemotherapy