

Date: 7 May 2019 . 98/2/21.

Patient's Name: Z.F.

Responsible Physician: Dr.Omranipour.

Patient Presentation:

-A 62 year old female presented with locally advanced breast cancer (IDC, ER-, PR-, HER+, Ki67 40%) with involvement of axillary and supraclavicular LNs.

-In her staging, a liver mass was found which reported to be in favor of hemangioma. She received NAC. Now her physical examination is Normal.

-Her oncologist has advised her to undergo RT and not recommended surgery.

Question: Surgery or RT?

Recommended Plan: Surgery.

