

Date: 15/6/99, 5 Sep 2020

Patient's Name :

Responsible Physician: Dr Elahi

Patient Presentation:

A 67 year old female, known case of right breast cancer (1391)

Surgery: MRM

Adjuvant treatment: chemotherapy + radiotherapy

Now there is huge right axillary mass with sever pain in right axillary regin and right arm

Physical examination: right deep axillary huge hard and fix mass 8*6*6 cm and brachial plexus dysesthesia (normal left breast and right breast bed)

Core needle biopsy of right axillary mass : malignant tumor, no remnant of lymphoid tissue

Bone scan: normal

PET scan: right axillary lobulated mass 76*65mm with involvement of soft tissue at this region, SUV max 17

Right shoulder MRI: huge lobulated mass 84*76mm in axillary fossa with involvement of neurovascular bundle

Question: what is the next plan?

Recommended Plan: IHC+ chemo-radition