

Date: 19.10.2024; 1403/07/28

Patient's Name: F.M

Responsible Physician: Dr.Mahrizi

Patient presentation: A 59-year-old woman with right breast mass.

Sonography:

An irregular mass in right breast at 11-12 o'clock, 40*23mm & suspicious Lymphadenopathy in both axillary (BIRADS: 5).

Mammography:

Microcalcification in right breast (BIRADS: 4c).

Thorax CT-scan:

Pleural effusion & thickening

CNB:

Right: IDC, Grade: 3, ER: positive, PR: positive, HER-2: negative, Ki67:60%.

Left: Lymph nodes: positive.

Question:

What is the next treatment plan?

Recommended plan:

- Medical treatment

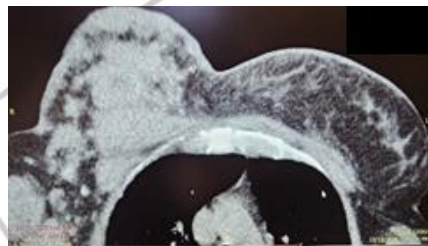

Figure 1: MRI of right breast shows mass and Axillary lymphadenopathy.

Breast Disease Research Center